Leveraging Student Information

Consent for Use of Student Information valid for current school year only

In compliance with PIPA, Soaring Heights Academy must obtain parent consent when sharing student information that makes a student publicly identifiable. Sharing this information for non-profit educational purposes allows us to celebrate our students' successes with parents, the community, and the public. By giving consent, you allow us to use your child's personal information (such as images, grades, and work samples) in the following ways:

- On Soaring Heights website and social media, including in print and electronic publications related to Soaring Heights initiatives and activities (newsletters, brochures, reports, etc.)
- Through Schoology (Learning Management System)
- In videos, lessons, and student work that may be digitally recorded for staff development or to showcase effective practices. These may be shared with other educational organizations.
- Displays and presentations within the school

This consent excludes:

- The application of student information for educational purposes within Soaring Heights Academy.
- Use of student information by media or third-party organizations, which will require a separate consent form.

Consent for Release:

☐ I GIVE Soaring Heights Academy consent to use my child's information as described above.
☐ I DO NOT give Soaring Heights Academy consent to use my child's information as described above.
